

DRESS CODE

When participating in the 2021 Washington DECA SCDC, please adhere to the following dress code for all conference components including opening and closing sessions, event competition, scholarship interviews, state/national officer interviews, School-based Enterprise, and Senior Management Academy.

Students will have the opportunity to be featured during the conference and must be in business professional dress or forfeit the opportunity.

BUSINESS PROFESSIONAL

APPROPRIATE ATTIRE

- Suits
- Dress slacks / trousers
- Professional dresses or skirts (knee-length required)
- Button down shirts (tucked-in) / blouses
- Ties, vests, ascots, or a scarf must be worn with a collared shirt at ICDC.
- A tie or vest is required for males wearing a collared shirt during SCDC competition. A scarf or ascot is not required by females wearing a collared shirt during SCDC competition.
- Belts (if pants have belt loops)
- Dress socks or nylons (recommended)
- Dress shoes & conservative accessories

PROHIBITED ATTIRE

- Leggings
- Denim of any kind
- Caps, hats, or bandanas
- Strappy tops or camisoles (unless under a blazer or sweater)
- Stiletto heels, athletic or boat shoes
- Sheer or stretch knit fabrics
- Low-cut or crop tops
- High-cut skirts or dresses

